I think we could probably cancel tomorrow's meeting and come together in a couple weeks to discuss time lines for activities and our Community Solutions call. We also need a download on CUPP and volunteers to put together the resources from the webinar series.

Thanks—what do we need to discuss tomorrow at the RIWG meeting? I think the next step was to create a timeline and I have not started on that one—do we still need to meet?

Hi Marsha,

I am not sure if I got back to you on this, but Chris was in the office yesterday so she is doing okay! If you have more trouble reaching out to her, let me know and I can try and ping her.

Hey Joey—I have sent several emails to Chris and haven't received a response—do you know if she is ok?
